

INTRODUCTION.

For the same reasons as stated in the introduction to BIOS/MISC No. 112 dealing with additional information on catalytic processes in Germany, a trip was made through the French, U.S. and British zones from May 18th - June 5th, 1947 and the information collected is described in this report.

The material has again been arranged according to the processes studied rather than according to the plants or institutes visited.